International Scientific Conference Globalization and Identity

Ideas of freedom, tolerance, equality, and progress, in which the special role of the Enlightenment era philosophy establish a European model of society. Consequently, today it is of particular importance to the countries in the process of Europeanization to share as European values.

We are living in the epoch in a new historical reality. Global processes in the modern world are so comprehensive that it can not be ignored and reacted without reaction.

The globalization process is mainly based on the rapidly developing technological base, Which creates closely interrelated social and cultural connections. In the era of globalization, economic and financial relations create "world without borders". Impressive globalization process, in terms of integration and cultural assimilation it is a serious challenge in terms of diversity, national-state identity. New theoretical and empirical research can contribute significantly to solving the problems faced by the modern society.

The aim of the conference is to show how the changing and / or reaction society to the globalization challenges in different directions.

The conference will be multidisciplinary and includes the following areas: Social and political sciences, economic, Culture, Law, Humanitarian and Education Sciences.

Representatives of IDP academic circles from Abkhazia and Samachablo are involved in the project. The part of the project is youth conference on "Youth and Identity" and youth workshop on "What Unites Us and What separates us".
